FREELANCE WRITER

about the author

I am first and foremost a child of God and a lover of Christ. I am a wife and a stay-at-home, home-schooling mother to 6 amazing children. My journey to motherhood has been full of lots of ups and downs as we have navigated infertility and more on our way to parenthood. Before motherhood, I earned my B.A. and M.A. in Theology and Christian Ministry at the Franciscan University of Steubenville and worked at a diocesan catechetical office. Now I serve others through my work the Office of Natural Family Planning with the Archdiocese of Saint Louis.

about the writing

It is my greatest desire for my writing to be an encouragement, a blessing, and to lead those who read my writing closer to Christ. As the tagline of my blog says, I strive to share how each moment in this life is an unrepeatable blessing which we should treasure in our hearts—just as did our Mother Mary. My ultimate goal with my writing is to lift up and encourage other women, mothers, and virtual friends on those days when our greatest blessings often feel like our heaviest crosses.
